1. Arrangements have been completed to offer a second Russian Course, Intermediate Level, After-Hours, Mondays and Thursdays, 6 - 8 p.m., in M Building, beginning 10 September, to run for approximately six months.
2. Plans are going forward to order four language tape machines for loan use throughout the Agency.
3. Dr. [REDACTED] had a long conference on Wednesday with Mr. Frith, Air Forces Language Liaison Officer, who is arranging for the Air Forces language programs at various universities. To date there appears little business from this Agency for these intensive language programs outside Washington for the coming academic year. Air Forces do appreciate our interest and cooperation.
4. A new class for UTG/A, Alcott Hall, numbering approximately 20, will report for a day of testing on Friday at Alcott Hall. The next Russian course, [REDACTED] does not begin until the following week.
